WORKSHEET 1

Answer the following Questions:
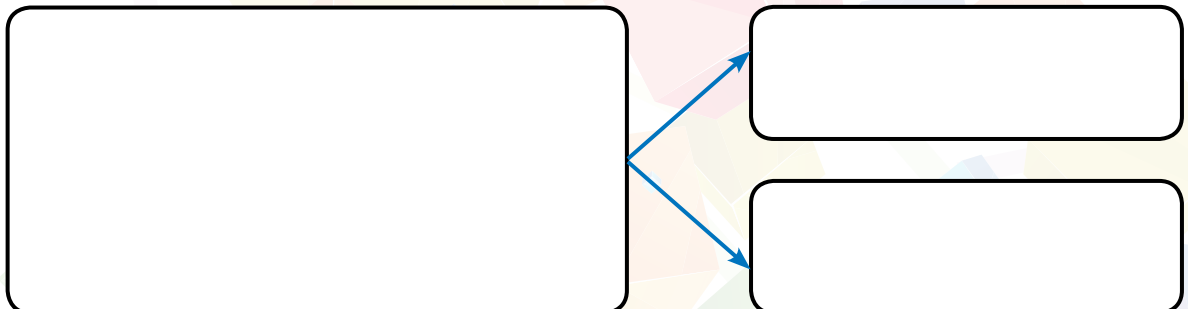

1. Name the four broad terms into which computer system is divided.

Computer System

2. Define hardware. Name the different types of hardware.

3. Define software. Name the different types of software.

4. State the difference between system software and application software with few examples of both.

System Software	Application Software

5. Define the term input, process and output.

Input

Process

Output

6. State the function of computer system through IPO Cycle with an example.

7. Differentiate between data and information.

Data	Information